Whereas, The West Virginia University Student Government Association’s Preamble “desire to… foster an open exchange of ideas… and self-expression”; and,

Whereas, In an effort to promote a positive student experience, the Student Government Association, who are representatives of the student body, can and should, if able, embolden and support artistic and culturally enriching endeavors; and,

Whereas, Support and proliferation of the arts is an integral part of a holistic academic community; and,

Whereas, Supporting fields such as the arts fosters the reality that all fields of research and study are equally valid, important, and necessary; and,

Whereas, Viewing art and other creative media is a valid and useful method of relaxation, de-stressing, and enriching one’s mind and experience.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Student Assembly of West Virginia University that:

Section 1: The West Virginia University Student Government Association supports the upcoming gallery viewing of the Cut Up/ Cut Out gallery which is currently installed in the WVU Art Museum; and,

Section 2: The West Virginia University Student Government Association should attend (if able) the viewing on December 4th at 5:30 pm, as a way to show support for the arts, and to not only help enrich the student population, but themselves as well.

Section 3: Upon its passage and approval, this legislation shall be forwarded to:
G. Corey Farris, Dean of Students
Sabrina Cave, Executive Director, Student Enrichment
Dr. Thanh Le, Director, Student Engagement and Leadership (Advisor)
Daily Athenaeum
Kate Dye, Student Body President
